Lujan Tops Pigskin Panel

By losing on only one game (Washington vs. Washington State), Benny Lujan, Campbell High student body president and quarterback on the B. football team, topped the Campbell Press Pigskin Prognosticators for the season. Benny wound up with 67 winners out of 98 games for a .683 percentage.

In second place is Mrs. Elaine Carey of the Sunshine Card and Toy, the only woman on the panel. She picked 64 winners for a .652 mark. Mrs. Carey was tied with Benny going into last weekend's games but had four losers compared to Lujan's one.

Marvin Moore, 10-year old sportswriter on The Press, is in third place. He picked eight out 10 last week and gained on Mrs. Carey but not enough to unseat her. Marvin ended with a 62-36 record and a .632 mark.

Pete Lico, of the Towne Pride Mart, is right behind Marvin. Pete had a good week only losing one battle. He picked Oregon over Oregon State. The affable market owner has a 61-37 mark and a .622 percentage.

In fifth place is Bill Means, of the Campbell Drugs. Bill only missed two games last weekend. He picked Cal and Washington to win and ended with 59 winners and 39 losers for the season for .602.

In last place is Sam Reed, principal of Campbell High. Sam had four losers last week and was relegated to last place as a result, one game behind Bill Means. Reed gave Benny Lujan, the champ, a run for his money early in the season but fell behind during the waning moments. His record is 58-40 for .591.

The Press is deeply appreciative of the work of the panelists during the season. The pigskin pickins' created considerable interest and every member cooperated to make it successful. We take this means to publicly thank Benny, Elaine, Marvin, Pete, Bill and Sam.

'CM' Takes Spot

For the second time Campbell's "hot potato" the "Controlled Manufacturing" zoning problem, comes before the City Council on Monday, December 2 when the City Fathers hold the public hearing on the adoption of the revised "CM" ordinance.

The previous time "CM" was at bat, the Council sent it back to the Planning Commission for suggested changes. The Planners made a number of revisions but still failed, after several meeting with the opposition, to satisfy those opposing both the adoption and application of "CM".

The opposition is expected to be out in full force with John M. Burnett, San Jose attorney, as their spokesman.

Although the adoption of the "CM" ordinance does not put into effect any specified area the general understanding is that it will be applied to the new industrial park area. Many landowners in that section are protesting the restrictions that are included

District Asks Aid For School Site

Laurance J. Hill, superintendent of the Campbell Union High School District, on Monday applied for $163,500 from the State Allocations Board for site development of the district's third high school to be located on a 43-acre site off the San Jose-Los Gatos Road just south of the Sherman Oaks Bowl.

The district two weeks ago was granted $2½ million for construction of buildings and the additional funds will be used for installation of lawns, a football field, driveways and other athletic facilities. The school is planned to open in September, 1959 with about 1500 students.

Variety Show Saturday Aids Young Gridders

Proceeds from the all-star variety show will take place in the Campbell High auditorium next Saturday (November 30) will be used to defray expenses of sending the Billy Wilson Hornets to southern California to play for the mythical state championship of the Pop Warner Conference.

The Hornets, made up of boys from 12-14 years of age, are undefeated this season. On Sunday, November 17, they defeated Livermore Warriors 27-6 to win the Northern California Pop Warner Conference championship. The team had previously won its own league title.

Three From Campbell

The Billy Wilson Hornets are made up of youngsters from Santa Clara County with three of them, Mike DeVita, Howard Hill and Steve Fryar hailing from Campbell. Billy Wilson, after whom the team is named, star on the 49'ers and a former star on the Campbell High and San Jose State teams, is a resident of Campbell during his off season. He has assisted the team in a number of ways.

Mrs. Ebb Bohn, of Campbell, wife of the "Cheery Farmer", is the producer of the variety show that will be staged to benefit the Hornets this Saturday night. One of the features of the program will be the presentation of awards to members of the Hornets squad by Al Ruffo, San Jose attorney, and former mayor of that city. Ruffo is part owner of the 49'ers and a former coach and Santa Clara University star.

Master of ceremonies of the show, in which an imposing list of entertainers will take part, will be George Costa, well known singer from the Santa Clara Youth Center.

Dancers

One of the highlights will be the appearance of the Joan Peterson Jensen dancers who will carry out the football theme with their dances. Members of this group are, Joanne Peterson, Carol Gates, Trudy Reynolds, Diane Doste and Peggy Dias.

Two accordionists, Patsy Baker and Ronnie Mellow, will also entertain as will Elaine Grizzlo, who has made frequent radio and TV appearances as a popular song and comedy singer.

Singers

Don Hoque, now at the Hawaiian Gardens, is also slated to sing as is Tony Bonaccorso. The Cressio sisters, Sandra, Carol and Sharon, blues, popular and bop singers, respectively, are also on the program. Gay Mauzy will play the piano accompaniment for the singers and dancers.

Others taking part include Max Fink with a comedy routine; Bobby and Betty Ratliff, teen-age tap dancers who have also appeared on TV; Shriver and Janet Lyon, pantomime act; Peggy Lassalonola, Spanish dancer; Linda Cunceri, Hawaiian dancer and Loretta Bohn who will play an original piano composition.

Ebb Bohn, the "Cheery Farmer" himself was originally liining up the numbers for this all-star show but was taken ill in the midst of the preparations for the gala event. So Mrs. Bohn stepped in. She has assisted Bohn in previous programs.

Tickets will be on sale at the door the night of the show and all players are also selling tickets. The price of admission is one dollar with children under 10 admitted free, if accompanied by their parents.

In Turkey Day Traditional

Campbell Meets Los Gatos Thursday

The Wildcats of Los Gatos will be out to snap Campbell High's five game win streak when the two teams meet in a renewal of their traditional Turkey Day rivalry Thursday at 11 a.m. at Los Gatos field.

The Buccaneers have won the last five games of the series and would like to stretch their streak to six to tie the Los Gatos win mark set at the opening of the rivalry.

Los Gatos won the first six games of the series, topping Campbell from 1934 to 1939 The Bucs got their first win in 1940 when they edged the Cats 7-0.

Campbell has had an off-and-on season this year, winning two and losing five, while the Cats have climbed to third place with a 5-2 season record.

Sixteen Los Gatos seniors and 11 Campbell seniors will be playing their last game for the two schools and as always anything can happen in this traditional "big game."

Big Ken Buran, Campbell's bruisiing fullback, will be back to plague the Cats again this year. Buran racked up two touchdowns last Thanksgiving as the Bucs rolled to a 38-6 victory.

Quarterback Jim Liggett, Los Gatos' leading ground gainer in total offense this season, and halfback Larry Rugani, fifth ranking scorer in the SCVAL, will carry the load for the Cats.

Los Gatos holds the edge in games won in the rivalry, having won 15 to Campbell's eight. One game resulting in a scoreless tie.

But past records and season totals mean very little in the traditional classic. In any event, there will be plenty of action for football fans as the teams wind up their seasons in this Thanksgiving Day "big game."

Park Site Area May Be Available to City

Prospects of the City of Campbell obtaining the abandoned gravel pit at the edge of the southern city limits and developing it into a recreational area took on a more optimistic outlook this week with the announcement that the city officials had unofficially approached the owners of the property, Pacific Cement and Aggregates.

Councilman Charles Rose, who has long favored the development of the old gravel pit into a park site, idle for more than 25 years, reported that feelers had been sent the firm as to whether the area could be obtained for the city and that the company officials indicated that a transfer of ownership might possibly be arranged provided a number of details could be worked out.

Pacific Cement and Aggregates sent their chief engineer, George F. Hampton, to the scene to determine whether the area has any value to the firm as a source of supply. Hampton's report to his company will largely determine the future action

How much acreage is involved was still undetermined but Councilman Rose feels that more than 20 acres are included in the section.

Those interested in developing the area into a much-needed recreational park site, after contacting the company's officials, were optimistic over the outcome.

Campbell Police Check Burglaries

Four burglaries and thefts over the weekend were being checked by Campbell police this week while two previous stolen car cases were cleared by the arrest Sunday of three teenage boys.

Roy Thompson, 163 Christopher Ave., reported two 5-gallon cans containing gasoline were stolen from his car parked by his home. George Meleen, 425 Redding St., reported the theft of a suitcase containing personal clothing stolen from his vehicle. Hayes Electric Co. reported a burglary of a power drill and extension cord from a house under construction on Sunberyy Drive while Dura Style Homes told police that someone broke into a house under construction on Coventry Drive and took a crated stove and oven.

Trophies Go for Best Yule Decoration

For the first time in recent years Campbell area residents will have an opportunity to compete in a local outdoor Christ-decorating contest this Yule season.

Sponsored jointly by the merchants in the Campbell Shopping Center (Winchester Road at Latimer) and by The Campbell Press, a beautiful trophy will be awarded the best outdoor lighted Christmas tree and another trophy will be given for the best decorated yard.

An entry coupon appears in today's Press. Residents desiring to have their yards and tree judged can either mail or bring in the coupon to any one of the merchants in the shopping center or to The Campbell Press.

Seven stores in the Campbell Shopping Center, Lee Bros., C & H Cleaners, Campbell Drugs and Pharmacy, Nielsen's Jewelers, Irish Washerwoman Laundromat, Laurel Variety and Sunshine Card and Toy, are sponsoring the contest with The Press.

Entries can be made any time before 5 p.m., Wednesday, December 18. Judging of the entries will be made shortly after the closing deadline and the winners will be announced the following week.

The objective of the contest is to provide pleasure to those participating and at the same time help beautify the city during the Christmas season.

Judge John D. Blaine, longtime justice of peace of the Campbell area, has agreed to act as one of the judges and his assistants will be named by next week.

Judge Blaine points out that "It isn't how much money they spend on their displays that is important, but rather the originality and ingenuity with which they use their decoration."

When a delicious dinner and a friendly, comfortable day are just memories, you can show your host how much you enjoyed the day by sending a living plant. You will be remembered by your host as well as showing him that you remember the occasion. You may want to make it a plant that can be enjoyed in the house; African Violets are colorful house plants. Ivies and trailing vines are useful home decorators.

If your host takes pride in his yard, pick a camellia, pyracantha, or rhododendron. Or, now, especially welcome is a living Christmas tree, or a holly tree. JAMES RARE PLANT NURSERY has a wide choice of living plants that would make a welcome addition to the house of a friend.

Around the holidays, many hostesses find that a cute, leafy house plant makes a very attractive centerpiece with tiny ornaments hung on the branches or with little clusters of red berries placed among the foliage.

One of the most practical items in children's wear to come out in many seasons is the hooded sweat-shirt. If you have young roustabouts, you know how hard it is to keep a cap or scarf on them, or even enforce the "put on your sweater before you go out," rule. Especially now, during these beautiful but chilly days it is necessary to keep them bundled up when they are too busy playing to realize that they are cold. Well, the hooded sweat-shirt is the answer to many a mother's problem, and the GOLDEN RULE DEPARTMENT STORE has it. Now, before the really cold weather sets in, the shirts are perfect warmer-uppers, and when coat weather arrives, they are wonderful under a jacket as an extra supplement. And, worn alone or under a coat, the hood is the best feature of all. No more caps thrown down and lost. The hoods are snug fitting, good protection against earaches and colds. And they are so easy to care for. They can take the beating that play clothes must and come out of the washer ready to go again. Be sure to take advantage of the special on them now at the Golden Rule.

CLARK'S DRUGS is one of the most Christmasy looking places in town. With all the gift suggestions, toys, cards, and tree ornaments on display, it gives you a real holiday feeling.

And now Clark's is giving you the chance to make a real stride toward preparing for Christmas. They have a special on tree lights and ornaments which you will want to take advantage of. Somehow, when you dig out the last year's ornaments they look a little shabbier than they did. For some reason, the lights usually don't work as well as they should, and one whole box of balls has been broken, and a mouse found a home in the angel hair, and so it goes. So take advantage of the colorful decorations waiting at Clark's.

While you're there, look over the wonderful selection of toys. For children of all ages, you'll find sturdy, well-made toys that will give a child a lot of fun on Christmas day and stand up well enough to survive long into the future.

There is a whole table of boxed Christmas cards in some of the most beautiful designs. There are cards that are modern and whimsical, or serious and very beautiful, whatever you may desire.

No matter how much most of us enjoy modern comforts and conveniences, we seem to cling to some of the old-fashioned pleasures as too good to be replaced. Like being at home together for a home-cooked Thanksgiving dinner. Of course, someone has to do that home-cooking, and the lady in charge of that depart- is usually the center of attraction.

As the star of the scene, she of course likes to look her best even over a steaming dish of oyster dressing. She can do just that in one of the cotton plaids or prints now being shown at RACHEL'S, especially for the holiday hostess. These allow her to look crisp and attractive and not have to worry about the danger of woolens in a busy kitchen.

These daytimers are perfectly lovely and perfectly washable in Gayley-Lord or Dan River fabrics. You will find them a real boon during busy holiday times, and any time that you want to look your neatest.

It's heavenly to open the oven to baste the turkey. Maybe we get ecstatic over prosaic things, but isn't it a treat to see the bird all brown and beautiful and smell that dressing? Sure it is. But that vision of loveliness is shattered when you suddenly baste yourself or your prize wool dress. Basting with a ladle can be a messy business, but some ingenious fellow, probably a husband tired of having ladles hurled about the kitchen, has come up with the answer. And the CAMPBELL HARDWARE, always with the welfare of harassed homemakers in mind, has thought it only right that they have a special on turkey basters, just in time to save on band aids and the cleaning bills. These basters are unbreakable, all nylon, and the handiest thing in the kitchen for the cook. You'll use it every week for roasts, hams, chickens, and dozens of other things you will think of.

It looks like Christmas at the Hardware with all the beautiful and useful gift items Norm is busy putting on display. There are milk glass pieces, electric appliances, bake ware, dishes, salad sets, steak knives, glasses, bar accessories, etc. When you go in to pick up your turkey baster, be sure to see that beautiful Crystal salad set styled like Swedish glass. It consists of a clear crystal bowl and 6 similar bowls of the same shape, perfectly plain absolutely gorgeous. It would be perfect for serving holiday desserts. After you've seen the elegant lines of this bowl, you won't believe it's under $5.00.

FREE! . . . the guest of honor at any Thanksgiving dinner, a whopping big turkey, all ready to go into your oven. Johnny and Thelma Sullivan have picked out some beauties and are hoping to give them good homes with buyers of beautiful Wizard refrigerators and deep freezers. The little dears, the turkeys that is, are just lolling around in the freezers and refrigerators at WESTERN AUTO, waiting for you to come in and make their lives complete.

The Sullivans are trying to make it as easy as possible for you to cook a sterling Thanksgiving dinner. They are also offering, free, a 15-piece set of heavy aluminum waterless cookware valued at $30 with any purchase or order for a Wizard range. The ranges in themselves are beautiful things, and when you receive this terrific cookware set, how can you possibly lose?

Besides the big essential items needed for cooking the dinner, there are many little essential items available on the table of kitchen-ware specials at Western Auto. There are Fire-King Casseroles in two sizes, pie pans, cut glass cake plates, turkey lacers,

For those little sprouts on your family Christmas tree, Mrs. Hoyle at LE MAR'S is offering a sale of some of the cutest dresses you'll find. There is something there sure to please for misses of three years through subteens.

This is all name merchandise of quality fabric. There are plaids, and prints, as well as plain colors. Pick a polished cotton or fine gingham in the hour-saving, drip-dry cottons that not only a mother would love, but also the lucky lady who receives one. You will find the tremendous reduction in prices one of the nicest features of these beauties.

There doesn't seem to be a more useful gift or a more welcome one for most girls than a sweater. Whether your sweater girl is a three-year-old or a subteener, be certain to stop in and select one for her.

For your building needs, wherever you may be, you can depend on WESTERN GRAVEL. Theirs are the big red trucks hauling transit mix concrete all over the valley. They can supply you with rocks, sand, cement and many other building materials.

THE CAMPBELL MUSIC CENTER is offering music lovers a special buy. Whether you like vocals, instrumentals, pops or westerns, you can find records you've been waiting for less than a quarter of the price you would generally pay. These 78rpm records usually would be $1.15 each, but the Music Center is closing out its line and you can now have them at 4 for $1.00. And these are records by top artists, too. Thumbing through them we noticed such names as Frank Sinatra, Patti Page, Perry Como, The Crew Cuts, The Ames Bros., Doris Day, Pearl Bailey, Tommy Dorsey, and many others. If you have friends who can't get enough music, this is your chance to give them a gift they will really appreciate and at savings your Christmas budget will find so easy to take.

The man with the whiskers peering out of the ad for BENSON'S CAMPBELL CLEANERS has a gift for you from Mr. Benson. In that package in his hand is a sweater — cleaned, blocked and looking like new.

Ex-Bucs Attain Gridiron Fame

Former Campbell High grid great Billy Wilson, now a star end with the San Francisco 49ers professional football team, is one of several ex-Buccaneers who have gone on to fame on the gridiron after leaving the Buccaneer fold.

Wilson was a member of the 1944 championship team which defeated Los Gatos for Campbell's second win in the traditional rivalry between the two schools.

Buccaneers, Wildcats Renew Rivalry in Turkey Day Classic

Kickoff Takes Place at 11 a.m. On Los Gatos Football Field

Campbell High Buccaneers invade the lair of the strong Los Gatos Wildcats Thanksgiving Day at 11 a.m. at Los Gatos field in a renewal of the 23 year rivalry between the two schools.

The Bucs will be hoping to salvage a so-so season with a win over their traditional rivals but they may find that the Cats are very rude hosts.

Los Gatos, having its best season since it won the SCVAL championship in 1951, has been doing its best to upset the preseasoon prediction wizards this year.

The Cats have won five and lost two and a win would put them in a tie for second place in SCVAL standings with James Lick. Lick stopped Los Gatos, 35-19, eariler this season.

Tabbed for ninth place in the league by the September "experts", the Cats moved up to third place last week with a 14-12 win over Camden. The loss dumped the Cougars into fourth place out of contention for the runner-up slot.

Los Gatos served notice of things to come early in the season when they upset second place choice Fremont, 25-18, and then went on to topple Washington, 24-0.

The entire starting lineup for Los Gatos is composed of seniors who will be playing their final game in the Wildcat fold. The Cats have a total of 16 seniors on the squad who will play their last game Thursday.

Led by senior quarterback Jim Liggett, who Gatos Coach Pete Denevi considers "one of the finest passers in the league," the Wildcats run out of a very effective "T" formation.

Liggett, who sparks the Los Gatos aerial game, is also a fine runner and is the Cats leading ground gainer in total offense He moves well on the option and rollout plays and has contributed plenty of ground yardage to the Gatos cause.

Denevi will also be counting heavily on left half Larry Rugani, a shifty back who is fifth highest scorer in the SCVAL this season. Fullback Mike Higgins, a senior playing his first year of football, has also showed well in recent games, breaking loose for an 84 yard touchdown gallop against Mountain View for the longest jaunt in the league this season.

Shoring up the Cat line are center Ernie Zenker, tackle Bud Bosworth and guard Ken Voorhees. All three react quickly on defense and open up big holes on offensive thrusts

But Coach Jim Muir's Buccaneers will be ready to throw out the record books in this one and anything may happen. Buc quarterback Bob Whitewing's passes have sparked the Campbell offense this season along with the running of junior fullback Kenny Buran and if the Bucs have anything to say about it Los Gatos may be in for a rough day.

The Bucs have only won two games this year and lost five but they picked up a 20-13 win over Sunnyvale, the same team that topped the Cats 6-0 in the first game of the season. The Bucs second win came against Los Altos, 13-7, a team that the Cats beat 19 13.

Campbell has 11 seniors who will be playing their last game for the "Blue and Red" against Los Gatos.

Four ends, Jim Omura, Dick Aldrich, Bill Compton, and Bill Pinkston, will make their final appearance in the traditional classic as will tackles Dan Grannis, Verne Walton, Frankie Morello and Mike Byrd.

Center Jim Cole and guard Tom Farley, a defensive standout for the Bucs all year, also will be playing their last game. Only one back, halfback John Flaherty, will leave the Campbell squad after this game.

Two other seniors, halfback Dave Alvarez and guard Jeff Kolling, were injured earlier in the season and will not play Thursday.

Two junior halfbacks, LeRoy States and Ron Corbus, will see plenty of action in the Turkey Day battle as will sophomore fullback Don Womer. All three have shown good power this season. Juniors Dave Walters and Roy Tannehill will be on hand to shore up the Buc line.

Unbeaten Panthers Top Campbell 32-0 To Climax Season

A game but outclassed Campbell High squad could not muster any offensive power against SCVAL champion Santa Clara Friday as the Panthers blanked the Bucs, 32-0, to climax an undefeated season with their eighth straight win.

The Panthers, showing their tremendous offensive power that has rolled up 216 points this season, refused to be contained by the Buc defense as they scored in each quarter.

Left half Paul Andrade sparked the Panther attack, scoring two touchdowns and setting up two more with long gains on the ground.

The Bucs, up against the toughest defensive team in the league, threatened to score only once in the game when they drove to the Panther 17 late in the third quarter. But a Buc fumble gave the ball to Santa Clara at that point.

The Campbell loss was doubly costly as Buc guard Jay Gibb suffered a leg injury and will not see action against Los Gatos.

Guard Tom Farley and end Jim Omura turned in fine defensive performances for the Bucs as did tackle Don Grannis but the Buc line was no match for the high flying Panthers.

Bright spots in the Campbell offense were the running of half backs Leroy States and Ron Corbus. Corbus and States reeled off good yardage against the Panther defense which has allowed only 33 points to opponents all season.

The Panthers scored after taking the opening kickoff when righ half Lee Volta went around end from five yards out to cap a seven play, 60 yard drive. Santa Clara took a 7-0 lead when Tabby Dominguez added tthe first of three successful conversions.

Andrade added two more TDs on runs of 21 and 25 yards in the first half to give the Panthers a 20-0 lead at halftime.

The Panthers scored again in the third quarter on a 10 yard pass play from quarterback Ron Costello to end Larry Guilford after Andrade's 27 yard punt return had put the ball in scoring position.

Junior Panthers Crush Bees 53-6, Win Loop Crown

Santa Clara High's snarling Panther Bees came to Campbell Thursday with win on their minds and left with a crunching 53-6 victory over the Campbell High Buc Bees.

It was the eighth stragiht win for the Panthers and shattered Campbell hopes for a tie for the league title.

After being held to a 13-6 lead at half time, the Panthers came back to score six touchdowns in the second half, racking up four in the last quarter, to topple the Bees and end their six game win streak.

The Bees, who had moved up to second place in the loop with a strong passing game, came apart at the seams and could not move against the air tight Panther defense.

Campbell's only score came when right half Marc Bahl intercepted a Panther pass and scooted 25 yards for a TD to tie the game at 6-6 in the first quarter. Bahl's score was the first touchdown scored against the Panthers in seven games this season.

Panther quarterback Shig Shamada, probably the smoothest ball handler in the league, uncorked a passing attack to balance the Santa Clara ground bulldozer.

LOW DOWN ON SPORTS

Harrington Kicks Beat Cal

Al Harrington of Stanford, who has been on the bench because of a broken jaw, came in to kick the point after each touchdown to win the game for Stanford 14-Cal 12. It was a close game all the way through. California made a good showing even though they went in as underdogs. They came through with 316 net yards offensively to Stanfords 336. They matched from 7:30 a.m. till 4 p.m. The hall touchdown for touchdown and it was Harrington's kicking the extra point that put Stanford over.

Oregon State Wins 10-7

This was sure the week for kicking winning the game. It was a 17 yard field goal by Ted Searle, quarterback of Oregon State that gave them their victory over Oregon. The Beavers by beating Oregon were the first Pacific-Northwest team to finish in first place two years in a row in the Pacific Coast Conference. However, they can't go to the Rose Bowl because there is a no return rule this season.

Ohio State 31—Michigan 14

Ohio State Buckeyes romped over Michigan to gain a perfect Big Ten season. We will get a chance to see them play in the Rose Bowl and though I am an Oregon fan, they will really have to be on their toes when they come up against this team.

Arizona State Swamps C.O.P.

Arizona State took their ninth straight victory when they ran over College of Pacific 41 to 0. Auburn and Arizona State are the only two major teams to come through this season unbeaten and untied.

Washington State Takes Washington

Washington State came through to beat Washington 27-7. It was the most lop-sided score ever between these two teams. Bobby Newman was the spark of the game, completing 14 passes for 195 yards and two touchdowns.

Buc Coach Can't Shake 'Win Habit'

by Art Cook

Championship teams are kind of a habit with Jim Muir.

In high school he played on two of them and since taking over at Campbell High as head football coach in 1950 he has coached three of them.

Muir's Bucs may not be the terror of the SCVAL this year, but he thinks they may surprise a few opponents before the season is over. It's a Muir habit.

Before Muir arrived at Campbell seven years ago, Buc football left much to be desired. The Bucs had grown accustomed to holding down the cellar position in league standings.

Only One Champ

Campbell had only developed one championship team before the 1950's. The Bucs took top honors in the SCVAL in 1955 with the help of one Billy Wilson.

But, with the exception of the 1944 showing Campbell High football history had been pretty grim. The Bucs had only beaten Washington, Mountain View and Los Gatos twice since they entered the SCVAL.

Then in 1952, two years after Muir had taken over, the Bucs started off the season by toppling favored schools and opposition coaches started to sit up and take notice.

Dubbed by sportwriters as the "Cinderella Team" the '52 Buccaneer edition went all the way to a tie for the league title.

Fremont, who battled the Bucs to a 7-7 tie game to earn a share of the championship, was the only team to come close against Muir's squad that year.

The 1953 season was a repeat of the previous year. Campbell fought to a 13-13 tie and again shared the league title.

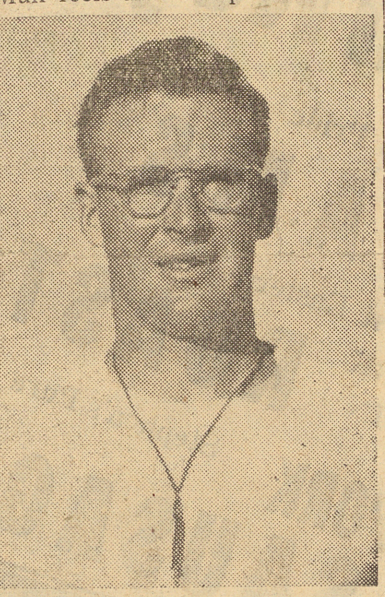
Third Straight Crown

In 1954 the Buccaneers got off to a slow start but then bounced top rated Santa Clara and Fremont and cut down Los Gatos to wind up the season with a five won, one lost record to take their third straight SCVAL crown.

Muir won't take all the credit for the record. Ballplayers like Gary Lukehart who is now making it tough on Oregon State opponents, and Eric Protiva, now with the surprising Stanford Indians, were on hand to help the Campbell cause.

Again in 1955, Muir's charges showed that they were still a team to beat and finished second in the SCVAL. They lost only two games that year, one to Fremont, 13-6, and another to Santa Clara, 28-14.

Last year the Bucs won seven, lost two and tied two to cop third place in the league. And Muir feels that Campbell is definitely not out of the competition this year.



COACH JIM MUIR . . . guides Bucs

He doesn't expect a near champion, but he believes his Bucs may be spilling the apple cart for a few of the top squads in future games.

Was Grid Star

Muir, who practices almost as hard as his players at daily sessions, hasn't been off the gridiron too long himself.

At Castlemont High School in Oakland, he played full back as a junior and quarterback as a senior on teams which were Oakland Athletic League champs both years.

After high school, Muir headed for the University of California where he lettered in football three times under three different coaches, Stub Allison, Frank Wickhurst and Lynn Waldorf.

After playing in 1943, Muir entered the Navy, staying at Cal for a training program. One of the highlights of his career came in '43 when he scored Cal's only touchdown in the Bears' memorable 6-6 tie with USC that season.

Lettering at quarterback again in 1946-47, Muir played with such All-American greats as Jim Turner, Jackie Jensen and Rod Franz. During his last season, the Bears had a near perfect record, losing only to USC.

Muir, who coaches the "T" formation system, has his own football philosophy that seems to have worked well since he has been at Campbell.

"We try to develop a hustling team and we play to win", he says, "but we don't sacrifice everything else to win football games."

And the Bucs seem to respond to his coaching methods. "We're hunting out our weaknesses now and looking for the right combination," he adds, "and we don't plan to be the league doormat for long."

This is no building year, he says, and he is sure the Bucs will surprise a few people before it's over.

Camden Bows 14-12 In Season Finale

A pair of extra points nudged Camden High's Cougars out of a shot at second place in the SCVAL as Los Gatos topped the Cougars, 14-12, last week.

The loss ended the Camden season and gave the Cougars a 4-3-1 record for the year.

Camden scored first against the Cats on a 67 yard pass play from Greg Rocha to Mel Profit in the opening period. But Jay Risso missed the first of two important conversion attempts that cost the Cougars the game.

Los Gatos came back in the second quarter when Dick von Alvensleben scored from one yard out to climax a 70 yard drive and tie it 6-6.

Paul Hundley followed with his first of two perfect PAT placementsto give the Cats a lead they never relinquished.

Both teams added another TD in the fourth quarter, Los Gatos scoring on a 26 yard pass from Ken Hill to Steve Chase and Camden tallying on a one yard plunge by Rocha. But Hundley's second conversions had already cinched the Los Gatos win.

Bucs - Cats Open Rivalry In 1934

The Los Gatos-Campbell rivalry began in 1934 when the Buccaneers fielded their first football team and played an informal schedule against teams in the area.

The junior varsity of Los Gatos defeated Campbell, 6-0, that year to open the rivalry that has continued unbroken into its 24th year this season.

Prior to 1934, football had not been a part of the athletic program at Campbell High and for the first few years Campbell was far from a threat to nearby teams.

Buc, Cougar Bees Tangle In First Intradistrict Tilt

Coach Hal Raley's Buc Bees will open rivalry against Camden High Wednesday at 2:45 p.m. at Campbell field in the first intra-district meeting of the two teams.

The game, originally scheduled for an earlier date, was cancelled by an outbreak of influenza and rescheduled as the "big game" between the sister schools. The Campbell-Camden varsity tilt was also cancelled by the flu attack and could not be slated for a later date.

Raley's Bees, who missed a chance at a tie for the league title when they were crushed by Santa Clara last week, 53-6, will be out to avenge themselves when they meet the Cougars.

The Cougars, who opened their season with wins over Fremont and Los Altos, hit the skids against Santa Clara, Sunnyvale and James Lick and now hold fourth place in the league, one step below Campbell. But Coach Bill Walker's charges will be out to topple the Bees in this one.

Bee quarter back Benny Lujan's passes are expected to spark the Bee offense. Lujan's tosses helped the Campbell squad roll up a six game win streak that was only broken last week by SCVAL champion Santa Clara.

Scatback Ron Wilson, the Bees leading ground gainer, and hard driving Marc Bahl, the workhorse for the Bees all season, will bolster the Campbell chances to stay in third place with a win over Camden.

NOON INTRAMURAL GAMES

Noon hour games are an important part of Campbell's athletic program. The noon teams are organized by homerooms.

In the seventh and eighth grades, there are two leagues with six rooms comprising one league. Both boys and girls participate in these games. This inter-room play includes such sports as volleyball, speedball, sacket and softball. Winners in each league play each other to determine a seventh or eighth grade champion for a particular sport.

At the present time Mr. Bryant's room and Mr. Ballenger's room are battling for the eighth grade flag football championship. Miss Machay's room and Mrs. Seese's room are playing each other to determine the seventh grade flag football championship.

Besides team play, an observer of the noon hour activities at Campbell will find many students participating in individual type sports. These include activities such as four-square, tumbling and trampoline. Children who are not actively participating in one of the many activities are used as officials. These officials see that the teams meet at the proper field, conduct the play, and turn in the scores for posting.

Next week the intramural program will be featuring speedball and wrestling. These activities will conclude at Christmas to be followed by volleyball and basketball.

DRAMATIC PROGRAM

One of the busiest activity groups in Campbell Grammar School these days is made up of seventh and eighth grade youngsters in the Dramatics program. These plays are in rehearsal simultaneously for presentation before December 21.

A comedy, "Beany's Private Eye", is being double cast for seventh and eighth grade assembly, the latter to take place Wednesday, November 27.

The cast will include Keith Ladine, David Aguilar, Lynda Rouse, Shelly Hancock, Sally Lavette, Stephen Hannah, John Hauswirth, Becky Putnam, Bruce Coutellier, and Pinky MacGregor.

The Christmas play, "The Miracle at Derrick, Texas", will be given before the PTA the evening of December 18.

The play tells of a "hard-hearted" Texas oil town which re-experiences the true feeling of Christmas when the local orphanage has been threatened with extinction.

GIRLS' SPORTS ACTIVITY

Among the varied activities offered to the seventh and eighth grade pupils at Campbell Grammar School is the Girls' Sports class.

The class meets three times weekly during the fourth period under the supervision of Mrs. Jeanette Peterson, seventh grade teacher. It is made up of seventh and eighth grade girls who desire physical activitiy beyond their regular daily physical education class.

The time is devoted to team sports and this fall the girls are playing basketball and volleyball. The girls have a chance to polish the skills they have learned in their P.E. class. They also study the rules and learn the finer points of the game.

Another objective is to give the girls a chance to referee the games, a skill they can use to good advantage in the noon intra-mural games.

The girls who select this class love sports. They get a good deal of pleasure out of playing. At the same time they are benefitting physically from additional outdoor exercise and through team sports are learning cooperation and good sportsmanship, qualities stressed also, of course, in their P. E. classes.

CAMPBELL GRAMMAR GRAPPLERS PREPARE FOR FAST SEASON

Campbell Crammar School wrestling room is buzzing with activity these days as Mr. Johnson is conducting workouts for this season's wrestling meets. The schedule will only last one month this year as compared with two months in years past. The first meet will be on Tuesday afternoon, November 26, with Monroe on the home mats. The season will culminate with the county tournament on December 20th at Cupertino.

Mr. Johnson claims that he has a very ambitious squad this year. Some of the promising stars at the moment are Dave Buck, Marty Linane and Gordon Kubota in the heavier weights. A boy that should go all the way is Buddy Kiles in the middle weights. Many boys are trying their hand at the sport for the first time this year and, with experience, should prove themselves well. They are: Steve Womack, Jim Gilliam, John Russell, Gary Fishburn, Calvin Jackson, Bill Smith, Jerry Raney, Paul Ginney, Mike Colby, Mike Spitzer, Bob Haliwell, Dave Parker, Frank Linane, Dave Bryant, Tom Smith, Douglas Rideout, Chuck Bebeau, Jim Sabo, Jeff Stephenson, Jerry Noonkester, Jim Botelho, and Richard Alexander.

Schools Receive Awards for Topping Quota

Each elementary school district within the Campbell Union High School District received a plaque for outstanding contributions at the United Givers' last report luncheon at the St. Clarie Hotel. The awards were presentd to each school's official representative in recognition of the district having gone over its $2500 quota.

Amang those present at the meeting were: Campbell High School District, Claude Cunningham, president of the district faculty club, and Mrs. Helen Andres, overall chairman of the fund drive for the area; Campbell Elementary District, Tony Van Laarhoven, principal of Rosemary School, and Mrs. Barbara Davis, fund chairman; Cambrian District, David Vogel, fund chairman; and Moreland District, Frank Lavoi, principal of Castro School.

He graduated from Campbell Elementary and Campbell High Schools and is affiliated with Explorer Scouts, Troop 28. At the present time he is attending night classes at San Jose Junior College and employed at the Campbell Post Office.

When given in marriage by her father, Carolina wore a bouffant ballerina gown of white chiffon over taffeta fashioned with shirred midriff, puff sleeves and wide scalloped neckline. Her elbow-length illusion veil was secured to a coronet of seed pearls and sequins and she carried a crescent bouquet of golden cymbidium orchids and stephanotis. A necklace of pearls and matching earrings, a gift from the groom, completed her costume.

Maid of honor and only attendant of the bride was Betty L. Hatlen of San Jose who wore a waltz-length gown of turquoise crystalette styled with bouffant skirt and puff sleeves. Her head bandeau was of matching crystalette and she carried a crescent bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and gold ribbons.

Gary Almada of Campbell, a long-time friend of the groom, performed the duties of best man; Joseph Pierce of San Jose and Arthur Hill of Campbell served as ushers. Organist was Glenn S. Daun of Modesto.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bates chose a full skirted dress of antique pink satin with three-quarter sleeves and matching pink satin hat with black suede accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

Mrs. Henley, mother of the groom, selected a winter white wool sheath and satin trimmed bolero with three-quarter sleeves and a small hat of iridescent sequins. Her accessories were clear plastic and her corsage pink carnations.

A buffet supper and reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Ceres for approximately 75 guests who offered their best wishes to the newlyweds. Yellow chrysanthemums, white tapers and wedding bells carried out the bridal theme.

Before the young couple left on their honeymoon trip to Yosemite, the bride donned a blue wool sheath dress with matching blue felt hat and black patent accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Henley are now making their home at 345 Page Street, San Jose.

Out-of-town relatives attending the wedding were James and George May of Rhode Island, uncles of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. James Babcock and daughters of Long Beach.

Open to the public from 10:30 a.m. till 8 p.m., the Fair will feature gifts galore for every member of the family and even include a fortune teller.

A taxi service has been set up for persons needing transportation to the Fair, and for pickup of food for members of the Afternoon Guild. Those needing this service are asked to call Mrs. Flood, El 4-1137, and she will make arrangements.

Lunch will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. by the Friendly Circle who will also have a booth of assorted gifts and a "grab bag" for children.

The afternoon Guild will have three booths, one displaying gift-wrapped Christmas cakes, all kinds of baked goods, and home-made mince meat; another for bulbs and plants, and a third for almost new articles such as clothing.

Home-made candy will again be sold by the choir as well as miscellaneous articles.

The Pilgrim Fellowship groups will operate games for children, sell popcorn and glazed apples and have a book booth.

Mrs. Juanita Bohnett, general chairman of the affair, reports there is still room for those who would like to enter articles or take part in the work. She can be reached by calling FR 8-3874.

A new world of telephoning is yours, Nancy Hedberg! Here's a brand new color phone that telephone man Jack Vidano is putting in your kitchen. Pretty wonderful, isn't it? Well, Nancy, this is a time of wonderful new telephone things. More and more grown-ups are dialing their own long distance calls these days. Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Day is purely American.

It is a day set aside so that we Americans can reflect the value of being Americans.

It is a day in 1957 when we all should count our blessings. And we in America have many to count.

Sputnik or no sputnik, all us must be thankful that on Thanksgiving Day, 1957, our long-standing heritage of liberty is still foremost in all our minds.

Apropos of this thought we recall last year's Thanksgiving message written for The Press by the Rev. Herbert Neale, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Campbell.

"I am thankful," Rev. Neale wrote, "that I live in a nation where I have the freedom to think different thoughts than the man next door and to express them unafraid.

"I am thankful that I live in a nation which recognizes its responsibilities 'under God'.

"I am thankful that I live in a nation which proclaims liberty is indivisible and which has a government 'of the people, by the people and for the people'."

We feel that all of us should take a respite this Thanksgiving from the hustle and bustle of everyday living and reflect on just what it means to be living in America.

The everyday problems that we all have in trying to make our budgets balance, and other domestic and business worries of like nature which seem to be, and are, of such extreme importance to us as individuals, will not appear as pressing when weighed against the many advantages that we all have by simply being Americans.

That is why we feel that this unique American holiday, established many years ago, should have a special significance to us all.

We are thankful we live in America.

Support the Coordinating Council

The first definite steps are now being taken to form a coordinating council made up of representatives from the various organization of the community.

Neal Royer, president of the Campbell Rotary Club, is the prime mover in the drive to establish some sort of a formal or informal organization that could pool the assets and efforts of the many individual clubs and organizations toward improvement of the community.

We commend Royer and his club for instigating the idea. The first meeting of the representatives was called for this week to discuss the general idea of the coordinating council and to report back to their respective organizations.

We sincerely hope that the organizations will carry through with the idea — for, in our opinion, such a council fulfills a desperate need for the community.

In no way would the proposed coordinating council supplant the individual projects of the clubs and organizations.

On the contrary, projects which are too ambitious for one organization to swing could be undertaken by the coordinating council.

All of us will agree, we are sure, that there are many such projects in the community that could be successfully pushed by a joint effort.

Adequate recreational facilities and improved city appearance are just two of the more general goals that could come within the province of the united organization.

We are certain also that such an organization would do much to increase civic pride.

We sincerely hope that all of the 38 organizations in the community that have been notified of the proposal will see the value of such a united group and support the organization.

To make such a council a success it will take the cooperation of all.

A coordinating council without coordination would not be of much help.

Holidays are wonderful but, as a rule, they raise havoc with weekly newspapers.

Those holidays that fall in the middle of the week have to be ignored most of the time, much to our chagrin. However, Christmas, Thanksgiving and New Years are the exceptions so every effort is bent to adjust schedules so that the slaves of the newspaper profession can enjoy themselves like ordinary people.

There is another factor involved also.

The newspaper has a duty to its advertisers and must adjust to fit their schedules as well as their own.

All in all it is a hectic time for all concerned as the staff attempts to gear a week-long operation into half the time.

This is our way of telling you that coming out two days before Thanksgiving was quite a struggle

But future events cast their shadows before them.

Christmas and New Years fall on Wednesday this year.

You can't pick 'em any worse than that.

So as we draw a sigh of relief that we are over the Thanksgiving hurdle, we must think ahead to Christmas.

But Happy Holiday to you anyway.

—o—

Emerson (Doc) Arends, of the Campbell Lumber Co. and a former student body president of San Jose State and the alumni association, is right in the thick of things in the battle to obtain the recognition for San Jose State that the college deserves.

Doc heads the citizens committee that is making an extensive survey of the situation. Although athletics are getting the headlines, the problem is not limited to big time football teams.

The current hassle over the accreditation of the engineering department at San Jose State is another case in point.

We have asked Doc to present his case in the columns of The Press and he has promised to do so. We hope to publish it soon.

We admit we are prejudiced in our viewpoint about the state college situation. Our alma mater is Fresno State.

We are sympathetic to Doc's viewpoint in regard to football and other factors, despite the fact that Fresno has walloped San Jose on the gridiron three years in a row now.

But the situation, as we see it, is far bigger than football alone.

—o—

We are convinced that the state colleges are being deliberately held down despite the fact that their enrollments are constantly increasing and their educational facilities have time and again proved equal to many of the universities.

We feel that the state colleges in California fulfill a desperate need and that they should be recognized for their functions now and not what might have been the case when they were first established.

Competing in football on a major scale is desirable because, if for nothing else it emphasizes that the colleges have reached their maturity.

We think it is time that the colleges should be recognized educationally where they are already in the major leagues.

—o—

We learned this week that the same thing that has been bothering us in regard to the courtesy drive-up mail box at the post office is also bothering Dick Adams, assistant postmaster, who was responsible for putting it there in the first place.

His gripe and ours is that a great many people use the spot in front of the box for a parking place, thus voiding the use of the box for the purpose it was was intended.

Dick explained that it was true that legally people can use the place to park, as it is not a "red zone". Because the post office is to be moved sooner or later, local postal officials did not ask the City to mark the area red (it takes a traffic ordinance amendment to do that). They had hoped people would be coonsiderate and mark it red in their minds.

Unfortunately that has not been the case.

It's downright frustrating.

—o—

While on the traffic subject we have noticed on several occasions recently that the wig-wag signal at the railroad crossing on Campbell Ave. has not been working when an engine or a train was going by.

At least it's consistent.

We have also heard the wig-wag signal ding-donging away when no train was in sight.

A case maybe of wagging when it should have been wigging.

—o—

A friend of ours told us that his little daughter recently got on one of those pay-ride set ups at a market. She did not put in any coin in the slot so nothing happened.

Whereupon she called out to her father. "Turn on the money, Daddy, I wanta ride."

There is a moral to this some place.

We'll let you know if we can find it.

—o—

With that thought, we of The Press wish you and yours, "Happy Thanksgiving".

Over the Years

By John D. Blaine

Last week I wrote a column in which I suggested that we need men more worthy to wear pants. And now I have a supreme test of my own ability to deserve pants.

A woman called up and asked me to write something about the problem of being annoyed by other people's dogs. She declined to give her name. In other words she wanted me to take the full rap.

Her request was not unreasonable. In effect she invited me to be gallant, like a knight of old. The knight wore armor. Reminds me that back over the years General Hugh Johnson wrote a column in which he acquired the nickname "Iron Pants".

Call me that, if you like, Iron Pants, suggesting knightly courage. And to have courage to write about other people's dogs I really need iron pants.

The subject is emotional dynamite. People love their dogs and their dogs love them. Centuries ago a wise man wrote, "Love is blind." That is, love closes the mind to reason. Love is irrational.

Sometimes we see this warning, "Beware the dog." We know what it means. The dog will protect that home irrationally, with utmost fury.

About 1904 I called on a home so protected. But I overlooked the sign. I was just about to ring the door bell when I heard the rattle of the dog's chain. When I turned quickly a big snarling dog was crouched to spring. The instant he caught my eye he leaped for my throat.

I threw back my head and the dog reached my chin just as he reached the end of his chain. His teeth gave my chin a nip and I let out a startled yell. In a moment the door opened and a big strong woman saw my bleeding wound.

Presently she emerged with a big wad of cotton and a big bottle of ammonia. She soused the cotton with ammonia, clamped the cotton to my chin, and with the other hand on top of my head held me as in a vice. I wanted to yell again but could not. The ammonia almost suffocated me.

That woman meant well and the incident turned out well. I lived to tell the tale and have told it often, expecting to get a laugh. I generally do. And never again was I so careless around a watch dog.

But once I was so careless as to race with two dogs who had charged barking. One got in front of my front wheel. I was thrown to the hard road on my right forehead and right shoulder. The fall laid me up for three weeks. I never tried to race with dogs again.

If my bike had been a car a dog would have been killed. Once as an experiment I took a bike ride over side roads for about an hour. I was chased by 16 dogs. Such lack of training seems to me very unjust to dogs. It brings many a dog to tragic death. The same dogs that chase bikes chase cars and some of them get under car wheels.

But my call to be gallant has another slant. Dogs annoy my unknown woman friend in many ways other than ones dangerous to both them and her.

Among things they do they push over her garbage can and scatter its contents. And worst of all they damage her lawn. Here I have a fellow feeling. At my home we gave up trying to have a front lawn largely because of damage by other people's dogs. We replaced the lawn wish shrubbery, which resists dog damage.

One way that dogs damage lawns I hesitate to mention. Dogs sometimes use lawns for convenient rest rooms! Perhaps their owners know nothing about this lack of doggist consideration.

We speak of pets being house broken. As an act of gallantry, worthy of the name Iron Pants, I might suggest that dogs be lawn broken—if you know what I mean!

But with all their faults dogs are a symbol of love. A dog loves his owner in spite of all his owner's faults. The dog has been one of man's best friends for thousands of years. Most dog stories are about dogs in unselfish and heroic role. The poet Byron penned these immortal lines:

"Near this spot are deposited the remains of one who possessed Beauty without Vanity, Strength without Insolence, Courage without Ferocity, and all the Virtues of Man, without his Vices. This Praise, which would be unmeaning Flattery if inscribed over human ashes, is but a just tribute to the Memory of Boatswain, a Dog."

Those lines were engraved on the Monument of a Newfoundland Dog.

FACTS
ABOUT FIRE PREVENTION

Provided By Fire Chiefs:

A. J. GILBERT	San Jose

R. B. WALL	Los Gatos
HENRY C. LINGUA	Central Fire District
GODFREY ZIMERMAN	Burbank

FIREPLACES are bright and cheerful. While they add coziness to the home, they also add an extremely hazardous element. Unfortunately, fireplaces have the potential power of destroying the homes that they brighten.

Never forget for a moment that you have a relatively open fire burning inside your house, only a few feet away from combustible materials. Here are a few fireplace rules:

1. Be sure your fireplace has a good screen to keep sparks from popping out.
2. Never go away and leave a crackling fire, even if your fireplace is well screened.
3. Have your chimney cleaned of soot regularly and checked for chimney and flue cracks.
4. See that children do not play too close to the fireplace.
5. Adults also should be careful about standing too close to the fire. Dressing gowns and bathrobes are especially hazardous.
6. Dump ashes in a metal container and carry outside. Never dump ashes into wooden boxes or paper cartons.

Does your fireplace have a spark arrestor? If so, is it in shape? Remember, almost six percent of home fires are caused by sparks on the roof.

As the Fire Departments' partner in protecting the community against the menace of fire, we are happy to devote this space to fire prevention messages from the Fire Chiefs in our service area.

Duo-Pianists to Perform Tuesday, December 3 at Civic Auditorium

Luboshutz and Nemenoff, who will play a concert on Tuesday evening December 3 at the San Jose Civic Auditorium, are rated among the foremost duo-pianists today. Experts claim they have elevated the art of duo-pianism to its present high status among laymen as well as serious music lovers.

In the 20 years of their career as a team, they have shown all America and Europe what the art of two-piano playing can become in the hands of masters, according to music critics.

Tickets for the duo-piano recital of Luboshutz and Nemenoff are on sale at the San Jose Civic Auditorium box office. Wendell Watkins Management is presenting the famed duo in San Jose.

> Only free peoples can hold their purpose and their honor steady to a common end, and prefer the interests of mankind to any narrow interest of their own. —Woodrow Wilson

Italian-American Club Holds Dance

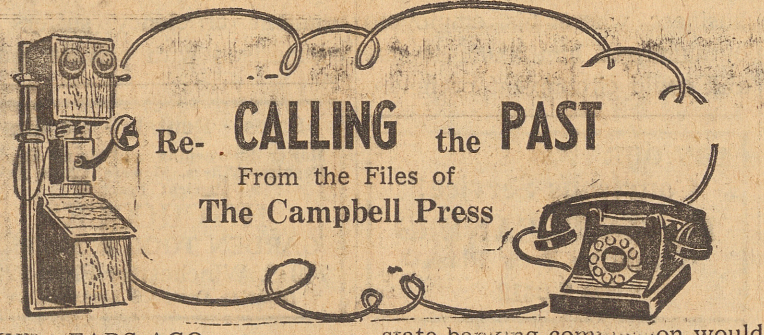
A good-sized crowd turned out for the supper dance the Italian-American Civic Club gave Saturday evening, November 9, at the Library building, according to Roy LaBarbera, chairman of the affair.

Beside LaBarbera, the committee in charge of arrangements was composed of Frank Peccora, Tony Bozzo, Ugo Orsi, and Tony Severo.

Winners of door prizes awarded during the evening were Joseph Cefalu, Chester Yerkovich, and Sam Cefalu.

CHRISTMAS BONUS

The usual Christmas bonus of half a month's salary will be paid on December 5 to all members of the staff of American Trust Company who have been with the bank since the first of the year. The announcement was made this week by Harris C. Kirk, president, following action by the board of directors.



Re-CALLING the PAST

From the Files of
The Campbell Press

FIVE YEARS AGO

Campbell residents voted 1621 to 908 against the West Valley Hospital $800,000 bond issue as the measure was overwhelmingly defeated by area voters.

The City Council moved nearer to the establishment of a business license tax fee for city merchants.

Campbell High Buccaneers toppled defending champion Los Gatos, 18-6, to win the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League title and drop the Wildcats out of second place.

Campbell phones were given the now familiar "FRanklin 8" prefix.

TEN YEARS AGO

The Santa Clara Board of Supervisors held a public hearing for pro and con discussion of the incorporation of the city of Campbell.

Drive for the proposed O'Connor Hospital got underway and efforts were intensified to collect the $3 million goal for construction.

Painters and carpenters moved in on the historic building at Central and Campbell avenues and tore down the sign of the former residents to reveal the old "Bank of Campbell" sign on the building. The action raised local resident's hopes that the state banking commission would soon permit resumption of banking operations here.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO

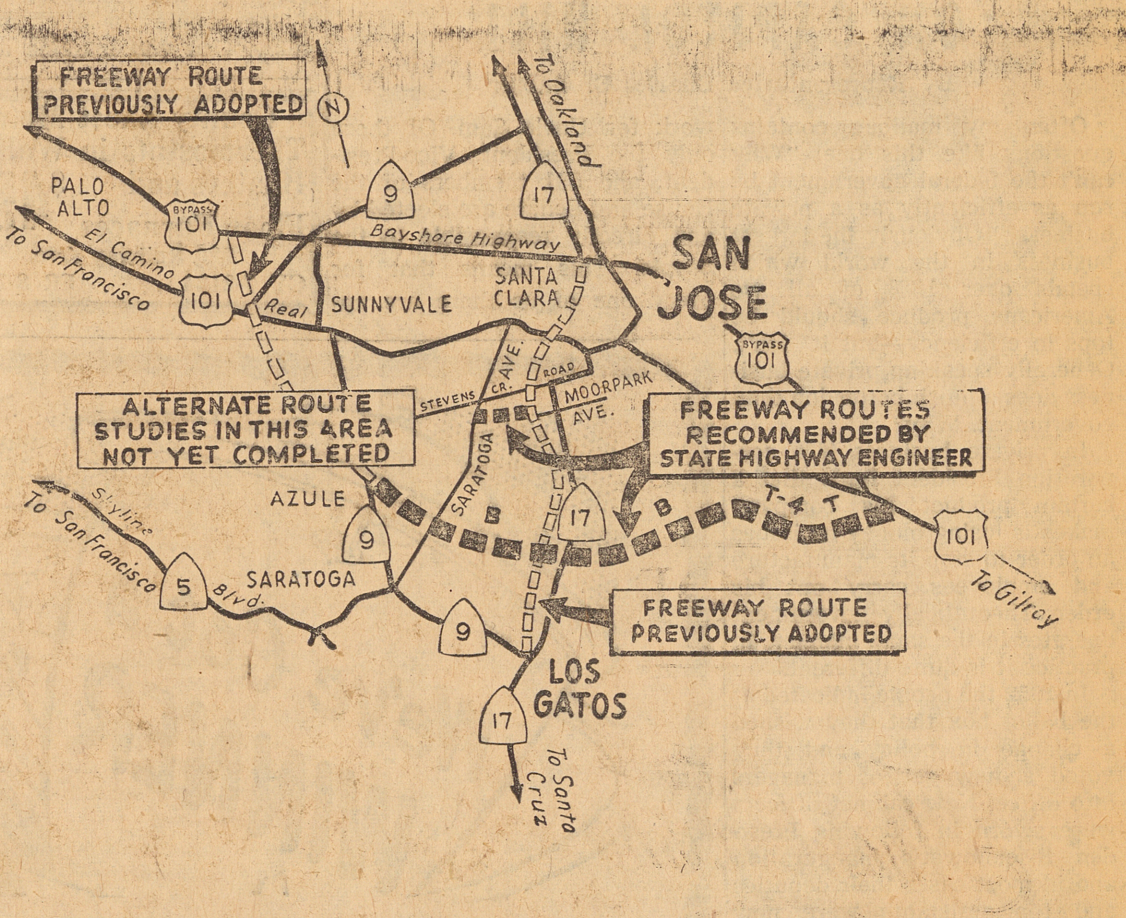
Master Neal Kennedy, charming son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Russell Kennedy, was host at a jolly party in honor of his sixth birthday recently. "Gathering around a ruddy fire in the patio fireplace, the children frolicked with confetti and enjoyed many games."

S. N. Hedegard, rancher and real estate man, in the Thanksgiving Day comment said he was "thankful for the cooperation displayed among the farmers in backing the prune pool."

Carl B. Field, local merchant, said in a similar comment that he was "thankful the Stanford-California game didn't last any longer."

NOW IN ARIZONA

Cpl. Kenneth L. Meleen, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Meleen, 424 Redding Road, Campbell, recently was assigned to the Combat Surveillance Company of the U. S. Army Electronic Pr oving Ground at u Fort Huachuca, Arizona.



PROPOSED FREEWAY ROUTES . . . The State Highway Commission is now considering adoption of two routes for segments of the proposed Junipero Serra Freeway, which connects Bayshore Highway south of San Jose, and the Interstate Highway Loop proposed around the southern section of San Francisco Bay. Freeway route shown would swing south of Campbell, running from Monterey Highway to Azule Station, where it would connect with route already adopted. This section would pass through parts of Los Gatos and Saratoga. Loop section would connect Saratoga avenue and adopted freeway route which will parallel Highway 17.

ON CAPITOL HILL

By Representative Charles S. Gubser

Often my mailbag contains questions like this one: "Why can't the federal government be run as efficiently as a private business?" Obviously the largest business in the world which spends over 16% of all we Americans produce should be tops in efficiency—but it isn't. Generally speaking private business does a much better job than government. Why?

In private business if a corporation President finds that a certain product his company makes is losing money he issues an order to stop its manufacture and employees carry out his order. Theoretically government operates in the same manner. In practice it is quite different.

In 1952 the people indicated at the ballot box that they wished a change in policy and they voted a new set of managers into office. New cabinet officers were sworn in following Presiden Eisenhower's inauguration and in most cases their deputies and top assistants were new faces on the Washington scene. But there it stopped. Civil Service regulations, originally intended to protect hard-working government employees from a political spoils system have kept hundreds of top-level policy makers on the jobs they acquired as political spoils!

In a thing as big as the U. S. government policy starts at the bottom and works up. Facts and recommendations are prepared by career employees not directly responsible to the people, and are funneled up to the cabinet level From these facts the top policy makers make their decisions, which in turn are, or are not, carried out in lower echelons. The result is that a policy change endorsed by the direct representatives of the people often gets lost in the shuffle. A good example is the Washington Agency which would administer controls of strategic materials in the event of war. We have a surplus of steel and ample quantities of all strategic material to immediately go on a wartime footing. Still, today, despite the abolition of controls we have a full fledged bureau drawing pay for something we have abandoned and further more will not need.

More than five million people work for Uncle Sam. Of these only the President, Vice-President, and 531 members of the House and Senate are elected by and directly responsible to the people. This means that for every one of us there are approximately 10,000 others whose jobs and decisions are not affected by the expressed desire of the people for a change in policy. Can you imagine a corporation president, responsible to his stockholders, running a business where his employees outnumbered him 10,000 to one and could circumvent or ignore his orders without losing their jobs? Is it any wonder that government efficiency suffers by comparison with private industry?

I am not advocating a return of the spoils system. Civil Service was, and still is a good law.

But isn't there some happy medium between freedom of an administrator to select his own key people and protection of the non-policy maker who has dedicated his life to public service? This is a democracy and whether right or wrong the people have a right to vote for a change—a real change!
